“Your participation in programs sponsored by Fair Housing of Marin ensures that the communities of Marin County are preparing ALL children to live in the world on an equal basis.”

— Mary Jane Burke
Marin County Superintendent of Schools.

HAROLD C. BROWN, JR.
Chairman, Marin County Board of Supervisors

Dear Residents of Marin:

At a time when racial, ethnic and religious wars are being fought throughout the world, we in Marin must stand firmly for the value of a diverse community. By sharing lives, making friends, and working together with people of other races, colors and national origins, we encourage the fullest potential in each one of us.

In addition, a commitment to truly fair housing in Marin means that families with children, persons with physical and mental disabilities, the gay/lesbian community and seniors will receive our welcoming hand as well.

In the last census, only 11% of our population was racially and ethnically diverse. As one second grader noted on her award-winning fair housing poster: “People make the community NO MATTER their color, race, religion or medical status—STOP discrimination.”

As Chair of the Board of Supervisors, I invite you to join us in translating that sentiment into action. How do people learn to live together? By living together. Support fair housing in your neighborhood—and help us make Marin a truly exciting community in which to live.

Very sincerely,

Harold C. Brown, Jr.
Chairman
Marin County
Board of Supervisors
